ATIWA EAST HEALTH DIRECTORATE

NUTRITION ORIENTED PROGRAMMES (2021)

INTERVENTION	TARGET GROUP	ACHIEVEMENT	AIM	SOURCES OF SUPPORT
Iron Folic Acid Supplementation	Pregnant women and adolescents out of school	Total no. of pregnant women dosed with Iron folic acid-2280. Total no. of adolescent out of dosed with Iron folic acid-454 representing 19.5%	To reduce anemia among pregnant women and adolescents	IGF . No support from other source
Growth monitoring and promotion	Children under five	Total children weighed-22405 Total underweight-103 representing0.5% Total no. of underfive who had their length and height measured-1764 Total stunted-0.1%	Track child growth, reduce high rate of underweight and stunting as well as reducing child mortality among the under fives	IGF. No support from other source
National child health days campaign	Postpartum mothers, children under five and male involvement	Annual celebration of child health promotion week which is being celebrated in every May was celebrated at Abakoase.	Promote child health and nutrition. To reduce child morbidity and mortality	IGF only. No other support
		Total attendanc170. Annual celebration of world breastfeeding being celebrated every August took place at New Jejeti Total attendance-140

Vitamin Supplementation to under-five	Children between the ages of 6-59	Total number of children 6-59 dosed with vitamin A-70393	Improve vit A among children 659	IGF.No other support for mopups
Training of school feeding caterers on nutrition and hygiene	All the 39 school feeding contractors and food venders in school	One orientation / training programme organize for all school caterers	To ensure nutritious and healthy meals are given to the pupils	Main support from the District Assembly
Community based management of acute malnutrition	Children under five years with severe acute malnutrition with MUAC of <11.5 cm	Total no. of admissions-4 representing 2.3% which is low due to the fact that no food available for the management of cases	Treat/prevent severe malnutrition in food insure parts of the District	IGF.No support for the purchase of therapeutic for the management of cases
Food vendors training and inspection of environment	All food vendors	Not done due to the fact that no financial support for such activities	To ensure that foods are prepared and sold under hygienic condition	support from the District Assembly
Clinic for diabetic patients and hypertensive	All diabetic and hypertensive patients	Monthly supportive visit to Enyiresi government hospital	To help reduce further complication as a result of the condition through nutritional counseling and education	support form donors